Fall Foliage Ride at Tyrone Farm

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

What is the trail terrain like at Tyrone Farm?

Tyrone farm offers scenic trails that take horse and rider through rolling, lush fields, inviting forests, a bridge or two, and gentle hills. This is New England, so expect occasional rocks and wet spots on the trails, but they are easily navigable.

Is this ride going to be held rain or shine?

Yes, this is a rain or shine event, and there will be no refunds issued.

How long is the ride?

Expect the ride to be approximately 7 miles long.

How much does it cost?

The cost is $65 for non-members, $55 for Pomfret Horse & Trail members, and $20 for Junior riders (under 18 years old accompanied by an adult).

How can I register and who do I send my payment to?

Register online at www.pomfrethorseandtrail.com/registration and pay via the PayPal option. You can also mail checks and paperwork to Margie Huoppi at 233 Pomfret Street, Pomfret Center, CT 06259. All paperwork and payments must be included with your registration.

Is there a registration deadline?

The Fall Foliage ride is open to the first 100 riders who send in their registration paperwork. Completed registration paperwork and payment must be received by October 10, 2023, to participate in the event.

Is lunch covered in my registration fee?

Yes, there will be Subway box lunches (turkey, ham, etc.) for all riders. Please indicate on your registration form if you would prefer a gluten-free or vegetarian lunch option so we can plan accordingly.

Do I really need proof of my horse's Coggins and rabies vaccine?

Yes, this is non-negotiable. Current Coggins and rabies are required by state law.

Are helmets and footwear with heels required?

Yes, helmets and shoes with heels are required by our insurance.

When is the first and last ride out for the day?

The first ride out will be at 8:30 AM, and all riders need to be on the trail by 11AM.

Can I bring a different horse than the one I registered?

Yes, but only with pre-approval and current Coggins and rabies.

Will there be a raffle this year?

No.

Will you be selling hats and t-shirts?

Yes!

Where do I park for the Fall Foliage Ride at Tyrone Farm?

There is ample parking available at the venue. You can park in the parking lot at 9 Tyrone Road. Pomfret CT. There will also be overflow parking in the field by the start marker.
